Central Congregational Church.

HISTORY.

At a meeting of several gentlemen, held May 6, 1852, it was resolved to enter upon an effort to sustain public worship at Jamaica Plain, in connection with an Orthodox Congregational ministry. Upon application, the Village Hall was liberally granted them for that purpose by the town authorities; and on May 26 the first sermon was preached by Rev. Thomas Laurie, of West Roxbury. From that time public worship was regularly maintained.

On the twentieth of September, of the same year, Mr. Simon J. Humphrey, a recent graduate of Andover Theological Seminary, was engaged to preach six months.

On the sixth of October, a Religious Society was formed, and called the Mather Society; it was not, however, legally organized until September 29, 1853.

The formation of a Church being deemed advisable, on the fifteenth of February, 1853, a council, representing ten churches, assisted to institute the Mather Church, with twenty-one members.

After the close of Mr. Humphrey's engagement, the services of Mr. Alonzo H. Quint, a graduate of Andover Theological Seminary in 1852, were engaged, with the agreement for a permanent connection. On the tenth of July, 1853, he commenced his regular work, though the official connection was deferred by mutual consent until, on the twenty-seventh of December, 1853, he was regularly ordained according to Congregational usages, through a council which met in the Baptist Church, which was kindly offered for the occasion.

On the twenty-fourth of September, 1854, a public service was held for the first time in the lecture room connected with the Church edifice, then in process of erection; and on the second of January, 1856, the Church edifice was dedicated to the public worship of God.

At the opening of the Civil War, April, 1861, Mr. Quint was called to the chaplaincy of the Second Regiment, M. V. M. This call neither he nor the Church felt at liberty to disregard; and accordingly leave of absence for three months was granted the Pastor that he might engage in this service.

The vote passed on the twenty-fourth of June recites that, in view of the case, "we do, although reluctantly, grant the request that has been made, and bid him Godspeed in his labors." The period named in this vote was afterwards extended by different votes until the beginning of the year 1863.

By that time the interests of the Church obviously rendered the services of a resident Pastor absolutely necessary, while yet no prospect of Mr. Quint's speedy return could be seen.

Moved by these considerations, he offered and the Church accepted a resignation of the pastoral office. Thus the relation which had so long and pleasantly existed was formally terminated on May 12, 1863, twenty-three months after the actual separation.

From this time the Church remained without a Pastor until September 21, 1864. Rev. FRANCIS B. PERKINS was then installed in this office.

In the latter part of 1866 the Central Congregational Society was formed in place of the Mather Society. The Church, therefore, voted on January 8, 1867, to drop the name by which it had been known, and to assume the title of THE CENTRAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH OF JAMAICA PLAIN.

On the twenty-fourth of June, 1870, Mr. Perkins, in consequence of long-continued ill health, was compelled to resign the pastoral office, and his resignation was accepted to take effect October 1, 1870, at which time the relation was dissolved.

In April, 1871, the Society sold its house of worship on Centre Street, and purchased a lot of land on the corner of Elm Street and Seaverns Avenue and commenced the erection of a new house, which was completed and dedicated September 5, 1872.

On the second of August, 1872, a call was extended to Rev. JOSEPH B. CLARK, and on the eighth of the following October he was installed as Pastor.

October 5, 1879, a letter of resignation of Rev. Mr. Clark was read and October 10 was accepted, and October 20 the dissolution was approved by council.

February 13, 1880, a call was given to Rev. GEORGE M. BOYNTON, of Newark, N. J., and March 7 the call was accepted; and on March 24 the council met and approved the proceedings, and in the evening he was installed.

On February 26, 1888, the resignation of Mr. Boynton was read, and by vote of the Church, March 9, 1888, he was urged to withdraw the same, but on March 16 he renewed his request for the acceptance of his resignation, which the Church did March 23, and a council held April 11, 1888, approved the action.

Rev. JOHN E. TUTTLE, of Westport, Conn., was invited June 29 to become Pastor and Teacher, which invitation he accepted August 1, 1888, and a council held September 19, 1888, approved the action of the Church and in the evening he was installed.

Mr. Tuttle read his letter of resignation June 18, 1893, which was accepted September 1, 1893, and on the twenty-sixth a council approved the matter.

The present Pastor, Rev. CHARLES L. MORGAN, was called from Chicago, Ill., March 23, 1894; his acceptance was dated April 11. He began pastoral service May 1, and on May 31 a council approved the action.

With the issue of this Manual, May, 1898, the Church has almost completed the forty-fifth year of its existence. These years are fragrant with blessed memories of unbroken harmony, consecrated service, and healthful growth. From the little band of twenty-one who first united to form the Church, the number has grown, including those received at the January Communion, 1898, to the present membership of 644, while the total number who have been members is 1,368. It is our fervent prayer that He who hath led us hitherto will continue His presence both to inspire and guide to ever-growing achievement in the divine life and kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ.

RULES OF THE CHURCH.

Article I.

The name of this Church shall be The Central Congregational Church of Jamaica Plain, Boston.

Article II. Government and Doctrine.

Section 1. Government. Its government is vested in the body of believers who compose it. It is subject to the control of no other ecclesiastical body, but it recognizes and sustains the obligations of mutual counsel and coöperation which are common among our Congregational churches, and is in fellowship with all churches which acknowledge Jesus Christ to be their divine Redeemer and Lord.

Sect. 2. Doctrine. It receives the Scriptures as its authority in matters of faith and practice, and is in accord with the belief of the Congregational churches of the United States as substantially set forth by a committee of their National Council in the year 1883.

Article III. Membership.

Section 1. Qualifications. Its membership shall consist of such persons as confess Jesus Christ to be their Saviour and Lord, and who, after due examination, and after proposal from the pulpit on some Lord's Day prior to that of reception, are accepted by vote of the Church, and, having been baptized, enter into its covenant, are formally received into its fellowship, and subscribe to its Rules. Candidates for admission on confession may be examined orally or may present a written statement of belief, but all candidates, whether on confession or by letter, shall, unless necessarily prevented, appear before the Standing Committee and assent to the Covenant of Admission.

Sect. 2. Reception. The reception of members shall ordinarily be upon a Communion Sabbath, and in the form appended to these Rules.

Sect. 3. Duties. Besides observing the spiritual duties of discipleship, members are expected to attend habitually the services of the Church, to share in its organized work, and to give regularly for its support and charities.

Sect. 4. Rights. Such members as are in full and regular standing, and do not hold letters of dismission and recommendation, and have attained the age of twenty-one years, and such only, may act and vote in the transactions of the Church.

Sect. 5. Termination. (a) Any member in good and regular standing shall be entitled, upon application, to a letter of dismissal and recommendation to any specified evangelical church. In case of removal to another community, such application should be promptly made. Such a letter shall be valid only for twelve months from date, and this restriction shall be so stated in the letter. If such letter is received by the church addressed within the restricted time, the membership of the person so commended shall cease.

(b) If a member desires to join a religious body with which this Church is not in fellowship, or which would not receive its letter, the Church may, on written request, give a certificate of good standing, and thus terminate membership.

(c) Members removing from the vicinity are requested to leave their address with the Clerk, and it shall be their duty to apply in writing for dismission within one year, or render satisfactory reason for noncompliance. The Church, after due notice and hearing and kindly effort, may terminate the membership of persons for the space of two years non-resident, or for the same space of time not habitually worshiping with the Church, or for the same space of time not contributing to its support in a manner satisfactory to the Church.

(d) Termination of membership by reason of discipline shall take effect as provided in Article VII.

(e) The membership of no person shall be terminated, except by letter, at the meeting when the application for such action is made.

Sect. 6. Restoration. Any person whose membership has been terminated on account of some offense may be restored by vote of the Church, upon evidence of repentance and reformation, or, if terminated because of continued absence, upon satisfactory explanation.

Article IV. Officers and Committees.

Section 1. Officers. The officers shall be the Pastor, or Pastors, six Deacons, four Deaconesses, a Clerk, a Treasurer, and a Superintendent of the Sunday-school, all of whom, with the exception of the Pastor and Deacons, shall be chosen by ballot at each Annual Meeting, to serve one year, and until others are chosen and qualified. One Deacon shall be chosen by ballot at each Annual Meeting for a term of six years. An informal nomination of such Deacon shall be made by ballot at the Preparatory Service preceding each November Communion, and the ballots so cast shall, without announcement, be given to the Nominating Committee for assistance in their report to the Annual Meeting. No person, however, shall be presented by the committee of nomination as a candidate for the diaconate who has not received the informal votes of three quarters of all present, and voting at said Preparatory, or some later meeting, previous to the annual election of officers. The term of all officers shall commence on the first day of January next succeeding the election, and continue as above provided. The financial year shall close November 30, and all reports shall be made including that date.

(a) Pastor. The Pastor, who shall ordinarily be a member of the Church, shall have in charge the spiritual welfare of the congregation; he shall preach the Word, have in his care the stated services of the public worship, and shall administer the Sacraments. He shall preside at all meetings of the Church except those for the consideration of questions relating to himself.

(b) Deacons. The Deacons shall provide for the Lord's Supper, and aid in its administration; they shall care for the poor and direct the disbursement of funds set apart for their relief; and they shall, in the absence of the Pastor, provide the supply of the pulpit. In consideration of long and signal service in the diaconate the title of "Deacon Emeritus" may be conferred at the discretion of the Church. Its recipient may, at the request of the Deacons, serve at the Lord's Table and share in the deliberations of the Standing Committee.

(c) Deaconesses. The Deaconesses shall visit the poor and the sick, bring cases of need to the knowledge of the Church, call upon new families, and in all possible ways assist the Pastor and Deacons in their work.

(d) Clerk. The Clerk shall keep a full record of all business meetings of the Church and also of the Standing Committee. He shall secure the signature of new members to the Rules and Covenant of the Church, and keep a register of their names, with date of admission, dismission, or death, together with a record of baptisms. He shall notify all officers, members of committees, and delegates of their election or appointment. He shall issue letters of dismission and recommendation voted by the Church, preserve on file all communications and written reports. He shall ascertain, so far as practicable, the residence of all absentees, reporting the same annually to the Standing Committee. He shall present a statistical report at each Annual Meeting and prepare the usual report for the State registrar.

(e) Treasurer. The Treasurer shall receive and disburse the funds of the Church. Benevolent contributions for specific objects he shall forward to their respective destination. Charitable funds contributed or appropriated for the poor he shall dispense under the direction of the Deacons. All other funds he shall disburse as directed by the Church. Of all receipts and disbursements he shall render at the Annual Meeting a report audited by the Standing Committee.

(f) Superintendent. The Superintendent of the Sunday-school shall direct the interests of that department and present a report at the Annual Meeting. With the approbation of the teachers he shall appoint one or more Assistant Superintendents, a Secretary and Treasurer, a Librarian, and such other officers and teachers as he may deem desirable.

Sect. 2. COMMITTEES. There shall be the following committees: —

(a) A Standing Committee, which shall consist of the Pastor, Deacons, Clerk, and six other persons, two of whom shall be elected at each Annual Meeting to serve three years. The duty of the Standing Committee shall be to hold stated meetings for consultation respecting the work and welfare of the Church; to direct the examination of and propound candidates for admission to the Church; to recommend objects and dates for public benevolent contributions; to appoint needed committees otherwise unprovided for; to write each year in March to all members who have been absent one year; to first consider all questions of discipline, and present such, when needful, to the Church.

(b) A Supply Committee. In case of a vacancy in the pastorate, the Church shall elect a suitable number of persons to constitute a Supply Committee, who shall provide for the temporary supply of the pulpit, and, in accordance with such instructions as the Church may give, recommend for the action of the Church some person whom they deem qualified and desirable for the pastoral office. With the acceptance by such a person of a call in which both Church and Society have united, the duties of this committee shall cease.

(c) By the Standing Committee shall be appointed in December of each year: —

(1) A Reception Committee of eight persons, whose office shall be the cordial welcome of all attendants upon the Sunday services and the early report to the Pastor of the names and addresses of strangers or new residents.

(2) A Social Committee of three persons, who, in conference with the Pastor and the committees of the auxiliary societies, shall arrange for adequate social features.

(d) At the Preparatory Service preceding the November Communion the Pastor shall appoint: —

(1) A Nominating Committee of three persons, who at the Annual Meeting shall nominate and present a ballot for officers and committees whose election is set for that time.

(2) A Committee of Arrangements of five persons, with full power, in conference with the Pastor, to arrange an order of exercises for the Annual Meeting, which shall include both social and the necessary business features.

Article V. Meetings.

Section 1. Worship. Public services shall be held statedly on the Lord's Day and on some regular evening of each week. Other religious meetings may be appointed by the Pastor at his discretion, or by vote of the Church.

Sect. 2. Business. (a) At any regular meeting for worship the Church may, without special notice, act upon the reception of members previously propounded, upon the dismissal of members, or upon the appointment of delegates to councils and conferences of churches, but not upon action seriously affecting the work of the Church, or to whose consideration any three members may object, without previous notice from the pulpit at a public Lord's Day service of the nature of the action proposed.

(b) The Pastor may, and shall, when requested by the Standing Committee, call from the pulpit a special business meeting, the particular object of the meeting being clearly stated in the notice. At the desire of the Standing Committee, or on the written application of any seven adult members, specifying the object thereof, the Clerk shall read, or cause to be read, at a public service on the Lord's Day, a call for a special meeting during the ensuing week, the object of such meeting being fully stated in such call.

Sect. 3. Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting of the Church shall be held on the second Wednesday of December, unless, for special reasons, another closely approximate date is appointed by the Standing Committee. At the Annual Meeting the order of business shall ordinarily be : —

1. Report of the Clerk.
2. Report of the Treasurer.
3. Report of the Standing Committee on Contributions.
4. Report of the Sunday-school department.
5. Report of Deaconesses.
6. Reports of Committees.
7. Reports of Auxiliary Societies.
8. Elections of officers and members of committees.
9. Miscellaneous business.

Sect. 4. Quorum. At the Annual Meeting, and at all special meetings, fifteen qualified members shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Article VI. Discipline.

Section 1. Should any unhappy differences arise between members, the aggrieved member shall follow in a tender spirit the rules given by our Lord in the eighteenth chapter of the Gospel according to Matthew.

Sect. 2. Should any case of gross breach of covenant or of private scandal occur, the Standing Committee shall endeavor to remove the offense, and if such effort fail, shall report the case to the Church.

Sect. 3. If the Church vote to entertain the complaint, which must be made in writing, it shall appoint a reasonable time and place of hearing, and notify the person in question thereof, furnishing him with a copy of the charges.

Sect. 4. At such hearing the accused member may call to his aid any member of the Church as counsel. If he shall not present himself at the time appointed, or give satisfactory reasons for his neglect so to do, the Church may proceed in his absence.

Sect. 5. All such proceeding should be pervaded with the spirit of Christian kindness and forbearance, but should an adverse decision be reached, the Church may proceed to admonish or to declare the offender to be no longer in the membership of the Church.

Sect. 6. In case of grave difficulty the Church will be ready, if requested, to ask advice of a mutual council.

Article VII. Ordinances.

Section 1. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper shall ordinarily be celebrated on the first Lord's Day of January, March, May, and November, on the last Lord's Day of June, and on the second Lord's Day of September.

Sect. 2. The Sacrament of Baptism may be administered to believers and their children either on a Communion Sabbath or at other special times after special application to the Pastor.

Article VIII. Delegates.

The expenses of all delegates of the Church to ecclesiastical councils or conferences shall be paid by the Treasurer from the funds of the Church. If a delegate or alternate chosen to represent the Church is unable to attend to the duty personally, the Pastor and Clerk may substitute some other member to act in his stead.

Article IX. Organizations.

The Church regards as integral parts of itself all organizations formed for the purpose of ministration, and which use the facilities of the Church property. Of all such organizations the Pastor shall have general oversight, and the Church will expect a report from each at its Annual Meeting.

Article X. Amendments.

These Rules may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present, and voting at any meeting called by the Pastor or Clerk in the manner specified in Section 2 of Article V, the proposed amendment being stated in the notice of the meeting; but no change shall be made in Article II, entitled "Government and Doctrine," or in the Creed or Covenant of Admission appended to these Rules, except by a three-fourths vote of all the members present and voting at a special meeting, of which notice has been given not less than one month previous at a business meeting, before which the proposed change has been spread in full, and also from the pulpit on the Lord's Day two weeks and one week preceding such special meeting.

Since the suspension of any Rule should be only by practically unanimous consent, seven opposing votes shall defeat such suspension.

ARTICLES OF FAITH.

THE following statement of doctrine, presented in 1883 by a committee of the National Council of our Congregational Churches, this Church adopts as substantially setting forth the teaching of God's Word.

It is, however, understood that, as a condition of membership to this Church, assent is only asked to the Covenant of Admission which follows this statement of Faith.

I. We believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible;

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who is of one substance with the Father; by whom all things were made;

And in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of life, who is sent from the Father and Son, and who together with the Father and Son is worshiped and glorified.

II. We believe that the Providence of God, by which He executes His eternal purposes in the government of the world, is in and over all events; yet so that the freedom and responsibility of man are not impaired, and sin is the act of the creature alone.

III. We believe that man was made in the image of God, that he might know, love, and obey God, and enjoy Him forever; that our first parents by disobedience fell under the righteous condemnation of God; and that all men are so alienated from God that there is no salvation from the guilt and power of sin except through God's redeeming grace.

IV. We believe that God would have all men return to Him; that to this end He has made Himself known, not only through the works of nature, the course of His providence, and the consciences of men, but also through supernatural revelations made especially to a chosen people, and above all, when the fullness of time was come, through Jesus Christ His Son.

V. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the records of God's revelation of Himself in the work of redemption; that they were written by men under the special guidance of the Holy Spirit; that they are able to make wise unto salvation; and that they constitute the authoritative standard by which religious teaching and human conduct are to be regulated and judged.

VI. We believe that the love of God to sinful men has found its highest expression in the redemptive work of His Son; who became man, uniting His divine nature with our human nature in one person; who was tempted like other men, yet without sin; who, by His humiliation, His holy obedience, His sufferings, His death on the cross, and His resurrection, became a perfect Redeemer; whose sacrifice of Himself for the sins of the world declares the righteousness of God, and is the sole and sufficient ground of forgiveness and of reconciliation with Him.

VII. We believe that Jesus Christ, after He had risen from the dead, ascended into heaven, where, as the one Mediator between God and man, He carries forward his work of saving men; that He sends the Holy Spirit to convict them of sin, and to lead them to repentance and faith; and that those who through renewing grace turn to righteousness, and trust in Jesus Christ as their Redeemer, receive for His sake the forgiveness of their sins, and are made the children of God.

VIII. We believe that those who are thus regenerated and justified grow in sanctified character through fellowship with Christ, the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, and obedience to the truth; that a holy life is the fruit and evidence of saving faith; and that the believer's hope of continuance in such a life is in the preserving grace of God.

IX. We believe that Jesus Christ came to establish among men the kingdom of God, the reign of truth and love, righteousness and peace; that to Jesus Christ, the Head of this kingdom, Christians are directly responsible in faith and conduct; and that to Him all have immediate access without mediatorial or priestly intervention.

X. We believe that the Church of Christ, invisible and spiritual, comprises all true believers, whose duty it is to associate themselves in churches, for the maintenance of worship, for the promotion of spiritual growth and fellowship, and for the conversion of men; that these churches, under the guidance of the Holy Scriptures and in fellowship with one another, may determine — each for itself — their organization, statements of belief, and forms of worship; may appoint and set apart their own ministers, and should coöperate in the work which Christ has committed to them for the furtherance of the gospel throughout the world.

XI. We believe in the observance of the Lord's Day as a day of holy rest and worship; in the ministry of the Word; and in the two Sacraments, which Christ has appointed for His Church: Baptism, to be administered as the sign of cleansing from sin, of union to Christ, and of the impartation of the Holy Spirit; and the Lord's Supper as a symbol of His atoning death, a seal of its efficacy, and a means whereby He confirms and strengthens the spiritual union and communion of believers with Himself.

XII. We believe in the ultimate prevalence of the kingdom of Christ over all the earth; in the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; in the resurrection of the dead; and in a final judgment, the issues of which are everlasting punishment and everlasting life.

COVENANT OF ADMISSION.

[The candidates for admission, both on confession of their faith and by letter, will present themselves before the pulpit while the Minister reads: —]

"WHAT shall I render unto the Lord
For all his benefits toward me?
I will take the cup of salvation
And call upon the name of the Lord.
I will pay my vows unto the Lord,
Yea, in the presence of all his people."

"Every one, therefore, who shall confess me before men, him will I also confess before my Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven."

"For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation."

CONFESSION OF FAITH.

DEARLY BELOVED, — You are here before God and many witnesses, to confess the Lord Jesus Christ, and to enter into covenant with His Church. You are moved to this act by love towards God, by willingness to obey the Master's command, and by a sincere desire for the welfare of your fellow men. We trust that you know the solemnity and blessedness of this Confession, and we are confident that He which hath begun a good work in you, will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.

WE BELIEVE in God, the Father Almighty, the Being of absolute perfection, the Creator, Preserver, and Governor, of the universe; Who so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son for its redemption.

WE BELIEVE in Jesus Christ, His Son, our Lord; Who was in the beginning with God, and was God; Who became man, and suffered to take away the sin of the world; in Whom alone we have redemption, being justified freely through faith in His blood; Who was crucified, dead, and buried; Who rose from the dead and ascended on high, and sitteth at the right hand of the Father; whence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead, giving to every one according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

We Believe in the Holy Spirit, the Comforter; through Whom alone we are renewed and sanctified and kept unto eternal life; by Whose inspiration the Scriptures are given, as our only authoritative rule of faith and practice.

Before Almighty God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, we humbly acknowledge our guiltiness; and casting ourselves upon His infinite goodness and mercy, we hope for the forgiveness of sins through our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

We Believe in one Church on earth and in heaven; in one Baptism; in one Communion of the body and blood of Christ; and we look for the Resurrection of the dead and the life immortal. Amen.

Do you assent to this confession as substantially setting forth your Christian faith?

Response, I do.

COVENANT.

Thus confessing your Christian faith, in the presence of God and of His people, you publicly enter into His covenant of grace. Having truly repented of your sins and heartily forsaken them, you devote yourself(f)ves to the love, obedience, and service of Jesus Christ; you take His Word as the law of your life, and the Holy Spirit as your Comforter and Guide; and trusting in His grace to comfort and strengthen you, you promise to follow Him in all things, to walk with His disciples in love, and to live for His glory.

Do you so promise?

Response, I do.

BAPTISM.

[Those not having been previously baptized are thus addressed.]

Dearly Beloved, you have solemnly avowed your penitence for sin, and faith in the Son of God who died on the cross for your salvation; and now, as the symbol and seal of regenerating grace, and in obedience to your Lord's command, you are to receive the solemn rite of Baptism. May God grant that, as you receive this sacrament, your heart(s) may be sprinkled from an evil conscience, and that, dying to sin, you may live henceforth unto righteousness.

[Baptism shall here be administered.]

———, I baptize thee into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

[Those who have been previously baptized are addressed as follows: —]

Do you who are (a) child(ren) of the covenant, now accept for yoursel(f)ves the seal of Baptism into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, to which faith and love brought you in childhood?

Response, I do.

[The Minister shall then say: —]

And now to you, if faithful to these solemn promises and engagements toward God, He is pleased to declare by His Word His promises and engagements toward you, assuring to you the free and full forgiveness of your sins; and pledging all-sufficient aid, upon which you may joyfully rely, in the consecrated life you have begun. He promises that He will be your God, your Father, your Redeemer, your Sanctifier, Teacher, and Guide. He covenants with you that, in the day of trial and temptation, he will cheer and strengthen you; that He will cause all things to work together for your good; that nothing shall separate you from His love; that your ascended Lord will receive you to himself that where He is there you may be also.

[The Minister now addresses those who unite by letter or certificate from sister churches. When only such are received the service of admission begins here.]

KINDRED IN CHRIST, as (a) fellow disciple(s) of the Master and (a) partaker(s) of the same faith with us, we rejoice that the providence of God which separates you from the Church of your former love, has cast your lot with us. We greet you as kinsmen in the Lord Jesus, as fellow laborers in His service, and fellow pilgrims to His promised rest.

COVENANT WITH THE CHURCH.

[Addressing all those entering into the membership of the Church the Minister shall say: —]

BELOVED IN THE LORD, baptized into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, you have confessed the faith of Christ before witnesses and have given yoursel(f)ves to God in His everlasting covenant of grace. And now, accepting, according to the measure of your understanding of it, the system of Christian truth held by the churches of our faith and order, and by this Church into whose fellowship you now enter, you cordially unite yoursel(f)ves with this Church; you promise to pray and labor for its edification and fruitfulness; to help in sustaining its worship, its activities, and its charities; and to live with us in Christian fellowship.

Do you so promise?

Response, I do.

[The members of the Church will here rise and the Minister shall say: —]

We then, the members of this Church, do affectionately welcome you into this household of faith. We pledge to you our sympathy, our help, and our prayers, that you may evermore increase in the knowledge and love of God. We trust that by His grace we may all walk worthy of the calling wherewith we are called, with all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love; giving diligence to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. God grant that, loving and being loved, serving and being served, blessing and being blessed, we may be prepared, while we dwell together on earth, for the perfect fellowship of the saints above.

[Here the hand of fellowship may be given with some appropriate passage of Scripture. After brief singing the Minister will close as follows: —]

The God of Peace himself sanctify you wholly: and may your spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord make His face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you. The Lord lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace. Amen.

COVENANT OF INFANT BAPTISM.

[Infants may be presented for Baptism on a Communion Sabbath, or on any Sabbath morning when proper notice has been given. The Minister may read as follows: —]

"HEAR, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord. And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. And these words which I command thee this day, shall be in thy heart; and thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children: and thou shalt talk of them when thou sittest down in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up," that they may set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep His commandments.

And Jesus said, "See that ye despise not one of these little ones: for I say unto you that in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven." "And they were bringing unto Him little children, that He should touch them, and the disciples rebuked them. But when Jesus saw it He was moved with indignation, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me; forbid them not; for to such belongeth the kingdom of God." "And He took them in His arms, and blessed them, laying His hands upon them."

[While the choir chant parents will present their children before the Baptismal font, and the Minister will then address them.]

DEAR FRIENDS, — In view of that promise of redeeming grace of which Baptism is the seal and symbol, and which, on condition of your faith, is "unto you and to your children," you desire the rite of Baptism for your child. Do you therefore promise, in virtue of the trust God has committed to you, faithfully, and prayerfully, to rear this child in the nurture and admonition of the Lord? Do you accept this rite of Baptism as a seal also of your covenant, so to cherish and so to train this child that you may, at the bar of God, render a worthy account of your stewardship?

Do you thus promise?

Ministering therefore in Christ's name, and in virtue of your solemn covenant, I give to your child this seal of God's redeeming grace.

[Here the Minister will baptize the child.]

———, Child of the Promise, I baptize thee into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

[PRAYER.]

And now unto Him who said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me; forbid them not; for to such belongeth the kingdom of Heaven," to the only wise God, our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

INDUCTION OF DEACONS.

Our brother beloved, ———, having been elected by this Church of Christ to the sacred office of Deacon, it is right and proper that, as the Apostles gave us example, we should publicly set him apart to this office, and invoke for him the presence and guidance of the Holy Spirit. For this purpose I will ask him, together with the Deacons of this Church, to come before the pulpit.

[Here the Minister may read Acts 6: 2–7 and Gal. 6: 1–10.]

My dear Brother, you have been chosen by the members of this Church to the sacred office ordained of God through his Apostles, for the assistance of the Pastor in the administration of the Holy Communion, in care for the poor, the sick, and unfortunate, and in the general oversight and guidance of this "household of faith."

Do you now, with reverent spirit and humble dependence upon God, recognize this choice as God's call to the service of this Church, and do you prayerfully and gladly devote yourself to the solemn responsibilities of the Deacon's office?

Response, I do.

[The members of the Church now rise.]

We then, the officers and members of this Church, extend to you our welcome to the honor and duties of the diaconate; and, together, we invoke for you that grace and wisdom from the Lord Jesus so needful for the faithful performance of its sacred duties.

[The Minister here offers prayer, closing with the following benediction: —]

Now the God of peace, who brought again from the dead the great Shepherd of the sheep with the blood of the eternal covenant, even our Lord Jesus, make you perfect in every good thing to do his will, working in us that which is well pleasing in his sight through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

HISTORY, PRINCIPLES, AND ACTIVITIES OF CONGREGATIONALISM.

"For one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren." — Matt. 23: 8.

I. BRIEF HISTORICAL VIEW.

THE fact that the word "church" is equivalent to a particular "congregation" or "assembly" of believers at once suggests what we find in the New Testament, that the apostolic "church," as an organization, was purely a local body. We find a church in Jerusalem, a church in Antioch, a church in Corinth; but when we look over a broader territory, embracing different localities, we find "churches," and not a national or provincial "church." Thus: "Confirming the churches"; "The churches of Christ salute you"; "The churches of Galatia"; "The churches of Asia salute you"; "The churches of Macedonia"; "John to the seven churches in Asia"; "Hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches." All the churches were in fellowship, but there is no sign of any organized "church" broader than the local congregation.

Each of these local churches had pastors and teachers, sometimes called from their work bishops, that is, overseers. But it is universally agreed that the word "bishop" never denoted any officer except an officer of a single local church. Its use in any other sense is not sustained by the New Testament. Each church, it is evident, had the power of discipline residing in its own membership, and not in its officers alone, and certainly not in any body outside of or above itself. The apostles had supervision, but although one vacancy was filled to make the whole number twelve who had "seen the Lord," when they died no persons were appointed to fill vacancies.

The great change through which ambitious men came into power produced a consolidated "church," which destroyed the original system. When, centuries afterward, the great Reformation began, the "churches" began to emerge from obscurity. But even the English Reformation did not complete its work. Many reformers, however, endeavored to secure a return to primitive government, but persecution attended their efforts. Many Congregationalists were fined and imprisoned. The last Congregational martyrs to suffer death were John Greenwood and Henry Barrowe, executed April 6, 1593, and John Penry, May 29, following. Congregationalists in England secured practical religious liberty when Oliver Cromwell, one of the greatest of their number, became ruler of England.

The church in Scrooby, England, established in 1606, went to Holland in 1607–8; and, December 21 (N. S.), 1620, a portion of that church landed at Plymouth, Mass., the remainder coming a few years later. Eventually, Congregational churches were established all over New England.

The State organizations date as follows: Connecticut, 1709; Vermont, 1796; Massachusetts, 1803; Rhode Island, 1809; New Hampshire, 1809; Maine, 1826.

Congregationalists have always believed in education. They originated the common school system of our country. Beginning with Harvard in 1636, followed by Yale, Dartmouth, Williams, Amherst, Bowdoin, Middlebury, they have established colleges and universities wherever they have gone, in the West and South, until these number thirty-four outside of New England. Beginning with Andover (organized in 1808), they have seven theological seminaries, including Bangor, Yale, Hartford, Oberlin, Chicago, and Pacific.

At the beginning of this century, many leading Congregationalists opposed the establishment of Congregational churches beyond New England. They did not believe that, in the new settlements, Christians were capable of local self-government. Hence they favored the establishment of a stronger polity which should place power in some superior judicatory. The "Plan of Union," adopted in 1801, finally abrogated in 1852, also lost many hundreds of churches to the Congregational body. Before the latter date, however, devoted men had begun to carry the gospel westward and southward, with the free polity of Congregationalism, and these churches have spread widely over the entire West, and measurably at the South. To this result the earnest work of the several national home societies, — the Home Missionary, the American Missionary, the Church Building, the Sunday-School and Publishing, and the College and Education, — acting for the churches, has largely contributed. Nearly every State and Territory now has an association of the churches for practical consultation.

There have been general American Congregational councils as follows: At Cambridge in 1637; at Cambridge, 1646–8; at Albany, N. Y., 1852; and at Boston, 1865. The National Triennial Council was established at Oberlin in 1871.

The statistics, in part, as collected in the specified years from 1859 to 1896, are as follows: —

Year.	Churches.	Ministers.	Church Members.	In Sunday-Schools.
1859	2,571	2,544	250,452	228,984

CONGREGATIONAL FELLOWSHIP IN WORK.

Most of the organizations through which the Congregational churches carry on their missionary work were in their beginning union societies, originally proposed by Congregationalists but sustained by contributors connected with various evangelical denominations. From these societies the other denominations sooner or later withdrew to prosecute their work apart, either taking with them an equitable share of the field and the funds, or leaving the whole work upon the Congregational churches.

These societies thus formed expended the contributions intrusted to them and reported to the contributors, but the churches, as such, were not represented in the election of their officers nor in their management. The tendency in these late years has been toward a closer relation between the churches and these agencies. A definite representation in their meetings for organization and business has been reached in almost every case.

The six national missionary societies are named below, with the distinctive work of each; the figures are taken from reports of the year 1897. They are given in the order of their organization.

I. THE AMERICAN BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS FOR FOREIGN MISSIONS, ORGANIZED IN 1810.

It conducts twenty missions in Pagan, Mohammedan, and Papal lands, with 543 missionaries and 2,956 native helpers. Forty-four thousand six hundred members are connected with its 470 churches. Nearly fifty-five thousand students are in its higher and common schools. By common understanding with other missionary organizations, about one hundred millions of our race have been set apart to this agency for evangelization.

Three Woman's Boards of Missions, located in Boston, Mass., Chicago, Ill., and Oakland, Cal., are auxiliary to it.

Its work is set forth in the Missionary Herald, published monthly.

To help in its work, contributions should be sent to its Treasurer at the Congregational House in Boston, or to its District Secretaries in New York and Chicago.

To apply for service in its foreign fields, applications should be made to either of the Secretaries at the Congregational House, Boston, to whom also general correspondence should be addressed.

II. THE CONGREGATIONAL EDUCATION SOCIETY, ORGANIZED IN 1816.

Its work is threefold: (1) To aid students in their preparation for the ministry. About four hundred persons receive such needed assistance. (2) To aid in establishing and sustaining colleges and academies on home missionary ground. Nine colleges and seventeen academies are on their list. (3) To aid in supporting common and secondary schools among the Mormon and Spanish-American population of Utah and New Mexico. Forty-four teachers are assisted on this field.

Its organ is Christian Education, issued monthly.

To aid its work, contributions should be sent to the Treasurer at the Congregational House, Boston.

To secure aid for a student or for an institution, apply to the Secretary at the Congregational House, Boston.

III. THE CONGREGATIONAL HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY, ORGANIZED IN 1826.

It supports general missionaries and aids in the support of missionary pastors, over two thousand in all. These preach regularly in our own or in other languages in more than thirty-eight hundred places, located in nearly every State and territory of our land.

The States which contribute enough to support their own home missionary work are organized with their own officers and boards of directors, and as auxiliaries send their surplus funds to the National Society. In other States and Territories the Society appoints and sustains superintendents of its work.

It publishes The Home Missionary each month, giving information as to its work and needs.

To aid its work, contributions should be sent, in each State in which there is an auxiliary society, to its Treasurer, and may in any case be sent to the Secretary or Superintendent of the State.

To secure its aid in sustaining a pastor, or in other home missionary work, application should be made to either of the Secretaries at the Bible House, New York City.

IV. THE CONGREGATIONAL SUNDAY-SCHOOL AND PUBLISHING SOCIETY, ORGANIZED IN 1832.

Through its Missionary Department it supports from forty to fifty superintendents and missionaries, who organize on an average more than five hundred new Sunday-schools each year in needy places, aiding about a thousand others with visits for reorganization and stimulation, and with grants of literature. From sixty to seventy Congregational churches grow each year out of the schools thus started.

It aids in the publication of papers in foreign languages in our own land, and lesson helps in Italy and Bohemia.

The Pilgrim Sunday-school Missionary publishes each quarter statements and illustrations of its work.

Besides this missionary work, the Society conducts two business houses, publishing helps on the Sunday-school lessons, books for Sunday-school libraries, record books for churches and Sunday-schools, and other books. From the profits of the business it contributes several thousands of dollars annually to the missionary work.

Where aid is needed, application should be made to the Superintendent in the State, to whom contributions may also be sent. In other cases correspondence and contributions should be sent to the Secretary or Treasurer at the Congregational House, Boston.

V. THE AMERICAN MISSIONARY ASSOCIATION, ORGANIZED IN 1846.

Its work is (1) among the negroes of the Southern States; (2) among the Indians; (3) among the Chinese in America; (4) among the "Mountain Whites" of the South. It supports or aids 122 schools, in which nearly 14,000 pupils are enrolled, and 241 churches with 12,288 members. It employs 655 teachers and missionaries.

The American Missionary is its monthly publication.

Contributions should be sent to the Treasurer, and correspondence to the Secretaries at the Bible House, New York City.

VI. THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH BUILDING SOCIETY, ORGANIZED IN 1853.

Its work is to pay last bills for young churches which cannot build without aid, either by a grant, or by a loan without interest to churches which can pay it back in five years. Aid from the Parsonage Fund is by loan, repaid in quarterly payments through five years. A first mortgage for the whole amount of aid is taken as a safeguard to the church and to prevent alienation of funds.

In 1896, 116 churches and 57 parsonages were built with the Society's aid. During the history of the Society over 2,500 churches have been built with this aid, and nearly 500 parsonages.

Applications for aid should be made to the Secretary or Treasurer, Bible House, New York. Contributions and inquiries may be sent to the Treasurer or to the Field Secretaries in Boston, New York, or San Francisco.
